sub-title of this article, and has obtained license thereunder, shall in any manner, directly or indirectly, sell, loan, give, furnish or supply, with a view to profit, any spirituous or fermented liquor, or intoxicating drink of any kind, to any persons within the limits of said city.

1888, ch. 292.

204. Any person who shall violate the provisions of the preceding section shall, upon indictment and conviction thereof, be fined not less than two hundred dollars nor more than five hundred dollars, and shall be sentenced to be confined in the Maryland house of correction for a term of not less than thirty days nor more than six months.

Ibid.

205. No vendor of spirituous or fermented liquors, licensed under sections 188–214 of this sub-title of this article, shall sell, directly or indirectly, any spirituous or fermented liquors to any person intoxicated at the time to such an extent as to be unfit to exercise proper discretion in its use; nor shall it be lawful for such licensed vendors to keep open the room where spirituous or fermented liquors are sold, between the hours of twelve o'clock at night and five o'clock in the morning, nor to sell, directly or indirectly, or to give away, in such room, or on or about the premises of such vendor, any spirituous or fermented liquors whatever between the hours aforesaid.

Ibid.

206. Any person violating the provisions of the preceding section shall, upon indictment and conviction thereof, be fined not less than twenty-five dollars nor more than three hundred dollars, or be imprisoned in the county jail for not less than thirty days nor more than two months.

Ibid

207. No pharmacist or druggist in said city shall sell, directly or indirectly, any spirituous or fermented liquors, alcoholic bitters or intoxicating drinks of any kind, except upon the written bona fide prescription of a regular practising physician of Harford county, whose name shall be signed thereto, and all such prescriptions shall be filed and kept by such pharmacist or druggist, and no prescriptions shall serve for more than one