

traders' licenses now are under the public general laws of this State; provided, that before any license under this sub-title of this article is assigned or transferred, the assignee shall have complied with all the provisions of said sections of this sub-title of this article required of any applicant for an original license, except the payment to the clerk of the circuit court of the hereinbefore mentioned sum of three hundred and fifty dollars.

1888, ch. 292.

212. In any prosecution under sections 188-214 of this sub-title of this article, it shall only be necessary to state that the traverser did sell or give away spirituous or fermented liquors, without specifying the particular kind of liquor.

Ibid.

213. All prosecutions for violations of any of the provisions of said sections of this sub-title of this article shall be upon presentment and indictment, except as hereinbefore specially provided for; and one-half of all fines imposed under said sections shall be paid to the county commissioners of Harford county for the use of said county, and one-half of said fines shall be paid to the school commissioners of said county for the use of the public schools under their control.

Ibid.

214. Whenever the word "person" is used in any of said sections of this sub-title of this article, it shall be construed to embrace natural or artificial persons, partnerships, bodies politic, or corporate clubs, associations of any description, and any or all persons or entities who can or might obtain license under said sections, or who can or might be prohibited from selling without compliance with their provisions; and said sections 188 to 214 shall be construed liberally to accomplish their purposes and prevent the mischiefs occasioned by their infringement.

HUCKSTERS.

1867, ch. 272.

215. It shall not be lawful for any person not a permanent resident of this State to come into Harford county, for the pur-