

person interested in them, or to whom the same are charged, shall require a copy of such account, said officers shall in as short a time as may be convenient, give him an account of said charges in words at length; and no account for officers' fees, rendered for services to or in behalf of any county of this State shall be allowed by the county commissioners thereof, until said account has been submitted to and approved by the judges of the circuit court of said county or a majority thereof.

1876, ch. 216.

239. The preceding section shall only apply to the counties of Harford, Dorchester, Charles, Caroline, Kent, Talbot, Prince George's and Queen Anne's.

ORPHANS' COURT.

1866, ch. 159.

240. The judges of the orphans' court for said county shall meet on the first Monday and Tuesday of each month during the year, if the public business requires it, to which terms all processes shall be made returnable.

1880, ch. 189.

241. They may, at each term, adjourn from day to day, if the public business requires it, but they shall not so adjourn at any one term for more than four consecutive days, unless there be unfinished business then pending and ready for trial; and they shall have power to appoint a bailiff, who shall receive one dollar and a half for every day he may be in attendance upon the sessions of the court, to be levied for and paid by the county commissioners.

REGISTER OF WILLS.

P. L. L. (1860,) art. 12, sec. 93.

242. The register of wills, during the recess of the orphans' court, shall have full power and jurisdiction to do all matters and things whatsoever which the said orphans' court could do at its regular sessions; and there shall be the same right of appeal from any order, decree or judgment of said register, as from the orders, decisions or judgments of said orphans' court.

Sappington vs Scott, 14 Md. 40.