

course of transportation,) any quantity of gunpowder exceeding one hundred pounds in weight in the aggregate, or any dynamite or nitro glycerine, or other explosives, in any quantity whatever.

1888, ch. 236.

167. Any and all violations of the preceding section shall be indictable offenses, and, upon conviction, the party offending shall be fined not less than one hundred dollars nor more than three hundred dollars, in the discretion of the court, to be recovered as other fines and penalties are recovered, and the party convicted shall stand committed until the fine and costs are paid; and if a corporation be the offender, the president, or any member of the board of directors or other officer of the corporation may be indicted and held responsible for the payment of the penalty; and all fines recovered under said section shall be paid to the school commissioners of said county for the benefit of the free schools of the county; provided, however, that the provisions of this and the preceding section shall not be held to apply to any magazine now used for the storage of any of said explosives in said county, nor to the owners, lessees or occupiers thereof, until from and after the first day of July, eighteen hundred and eighty-nine.

JURORS.

F. L. L., (1860,) art. 2, sec. 104.

168. The county commissioners shall annually levy on the assessable property in the county, a sum of money not exceeding fifteen hundred dollars, to be applied to the payment and discharge of the expenses of jurymen at the circuit court.

Ibid. sec. 105.

169. The sum of money so levied, when collected, shall be deposited by the commissioners in the Farmers' Bank of Maryland, and a certificate signed by the clerk of the circuit court, expressing the number of days which any jurymen may have attended, and the sum due to him for such attendance, shall be a sufficient authority to the cashier of the said bank to pay the amount so specified in said certificate.
