243. It shall be the official duty of the register of wills for said county, to keep regularly a continuous general index or key to guardians' accounts, and to wills in his office.

1886, ch. 50.

244. The deputy of the register of wills is empowered to administer all oaths that the register of wills is by law empowered to administer.

ROADS.

P. L. L., (1860,) art. 12, sec. 94.

245. The county commissioners are authorized, in their discretion, to re-survey and mark and bound the public roads in Harford county, when and where they may deem such re-survey necessary and expedient.

Ibid. sec. 95.

246. Whenever they shall deem it expedient that any of the public roads shall be re-surveyed, they shall appoint three persons not interested or holding lands through which said road may pass; and the persons so appointed, after giving thirty days' notice thereof, shall meet on the premises and re-survey and mark and bound such public road according to the best evidence they can obtain of the location thereof, either by examination of witnesses, or by reference to former surveys, or by personal inspection of such road; and in the absence of other sufficient and satisfactory evidence, the examiners are authorized to adopt the centre of such road as the centre thereof according to its true location, and mark and bound such road accordingly, giving it the proper width to which it may be entitled, being not less than thirty feet in any case; and they shall make and return to the county commissioners a plat of such road, with a full report of their proceedings, under their hands.

Ibid. sec. 96.

247. The examiners, before they proceed to act, shall take an oath to execute the trust reposed in them by the commission issued to them, faithfully and without favor, affection or partiality, which oath shall be endorsed on the commission and returned therewith.
