

P. L. L., (1860.) art. 12, sec. 97.

248. Upon the expiration of ten days from the return of the examiners, the county commissioners, after hearing and considering any objections that may be made, shall proceed to pass judgment thereon, and affirm or reject the same, or order it to be amended, in their discretion, and may continue over their proceedings to their next meeting, and so from time to time, so long as they shall, in their judgment, think such continuance necessary for the purpose of justice; and their final judgment, in relation to such road, and the plat thereof, as confirmed by such judgment, shall be recorded among the land records of the county by the clerk of the circuit court in a separate book, to be by him provided for that purpose; and for such recording, the clerk shall be entitled to charge and be paid by the county commissioners, according to the rate for recording such matters authorized by law; and the re-survey of such road as established and confirmed by the judgment of the county commissioners, or certified copies of the record thereof, shall be taken and received as full and sufficient evidence of the true location of such road.

SCHOOLS.

1876, ch. 276.

249. The board of county school commissioners shall not expend for school purposes, or for any other purpose, a greater sum of money in any one year than shall be annually levied for school purposes, by the county commissioners, in addition to the amount annually received by the said school commissioners from the treasurer of the State; and they shall not borrow any sum of money in any one year in excess of their actual receipts and incomes for such year, as provided by law; and it shall not be lawful for said county school commissioners to contract or pay any debt in excess of the annual revenues provided by law for school purposes; nor shall the county commissioners assume or pay any debt or any portion thereof contracted in violation of the provisions of this section.

SHERIFF.

1880, ch. 191.

250. The sheriff shall not be entitled to receive more than thirty-five cents per day for keeping and boarding each prisoner
