

the sum allowed by law as an appearance fee, may allow to the State's attorney for said county such compensation, in each case by way of trial fee, as they may think just and proper, to be levied by the county commissioners.

1874, ch. 359.

255. For the services rendered by the State's attorney before committing justices, in preliminary examination in cases in which the judges may deem his presence advisable, they may allow to him such compensation, not exceeding the sum of ten dollars in any one case, as they shall think just and proper.

Ibid.

256. On or before the fifteenth day of June in each year, the State's attorney shall make up and present to said court, for their inspection and approval, his account for services rendered during the fiscal year past, which account, when approved by them, shall be filed with the county commissioners for levy.

TAXES.

1876, ch. 372.

257. The county commissioners shall, on or before the third Tuesday in April in each year, or as soon thereafter as may be, let out the collection of State and county taxes of said county, levied or to be levied for the current year, to the lowest bidder therefor, having, in their judgment, good business qualifications for said office of collector; provided, that no bid be received otherwise than by a per centum on the amount of collections, and not to exceed five per centum of the collections.

Ibid.

258. Anyone bidding for the collection of said taxes may put in a bid for one or more of the several election districts of said county; provided, however, that the second and sixth districts of said county shall be considered as one collection district, and no bid shall be received for said second and sixth districts except for the two united.
