

appointed by him, not to exceed ten per centum on the amount placed in their hands for collection, and said commissions shall be levied by the county commissioners and collected by said collectors.

TOMATOES.

1882, ch. 448.

263. The legal weight of tomatoes in Harford county shall be sixty-two pounds to the bushel, and in all cases where either the buyer or seller of tomatoes so desires it, they shall be sold by such weight.

TIDEWATER CANAL.

P. L. L., (1860,) art. 12, sec. 138.

264. If any person shall wantonly open any gate, wicket or lock of the Tidewater canal, or wantonly break or injure any lock, gate, wicket, embankment, wall or other work appertaining to said canal, he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be subject to such fine and imprisonment, or either, as the court before whom he may be tried shall, in its discretion, impose, and shall also be adjudged to pay all such damages to the said canal company as the said company may have sustained by the injury to its works.

Ibid. sec. 139.

265. If any person navigating said canal shall take or destroy any fence, rails, wood, timber, grain, grass, or any other thing belonging to any person having the occupancy of any lands along the line of the said canal, he shall pay the owner the full value of the property destroyed, and shall also pay a penalty of twenty dollars for each offence, to be recovered before a justice of the peace, in the name of the person injured, as small debts.

Ibid. sec. 140.

266. If any person navigating said canal shall turn his horses or mules on any of the lands in the vicinity of said canal, without the consent of the owner or occupier of said lands, he shall be liable to the penalty imposed by the preceding section, to be recovered in the same manner.