

or near Oakington, shall be subject to the operation of the twenty-two sections following.

1872, ch. 54.

279. The season for shooting wild fowl northward of the line described in the preceding section, shall begin on the first day of November in each and every year, and continue until the thirty-first day of March next succeeding, in each and every year hereafter; and it shall not be lawful for any person to kill or shoot at wild fowl northward of said line, except from ashore, and southward of a line drawn east from Point Concord light-house in Harford county to Carpenter's Point on the western shore of Cecil county, at any other time; and any person violating the provisions of this section shall, on conviction thereof, be fined not less than fifty dollars and not more than one hundred dollars for each offence.

1886, ch. 512.

280. It shall be lawful to shoot teal ducks, mallards, black ducks, bald pates, and all other ducks known as marsh ducks, in any manner other than by swivel, gun or big gun, from one hour before sunrise until one hour after sunset every day, from the fifteenth day of August to the first day of October of each year, on the waters of the Chesapeake bay, lying and being within the bounds prescribed by section 278.

1872, ch. 54.

281. No person shall shoot or kill, or shoot at, any wild fowl, in, on or over the waters lying northward of the line described in section 278, in the night time, with guns of any size or description whatever; and any person violating the provisions of this section, upon conviction thereof shall be subject to a fine of not less than one hundred dollars and not more than five hundred dollars, for each and every violation thereof.

1884, ch. 506.

282. No person shall, at any time, either in the day or night time, shoot or kill, or shoot at any wild fowl, in or over the waters lying northward of the line described in section 278, from any vessel, boat, float, canoe, sneak boat, sink boat, or any other
