

for the said period of three gunning days the said persons, craft and gunning outfit shall be considered to be without license; and in case of any violation of this section, the penalty shall be the same as is imposed upon persons and crafts gunning without license; and the said prohibition shall not be relieved or stayed by an appeal.

1872, ch. 54.

301. The commander of the State police force shall have, and is hereby invested with concurrent jurisdiction and authority with the board of special police, appointed by section 296, to arrest without warrant for any violation of any of the provisions of sections 278 to 300, inclusive.

1882, ch. 278.

302. If any person at any time shall use or have in his possession, or sell, or dispose of, any sink-boat, sneak-boat, float or big or swivel gun, with the intent and for the purpose of shooting at or killing wild ducks or water-fowl of any kind, in any of the waters of Harford or Baltimore counties, or of the Chesapeake bay, adjacent thereto, up to the middle of said bay, every such person shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction of having violated this section, shall pay a fine of not less than fifty dollars nor more than two hundred dollars for each and every offence; and the possession, or sale, or disposition by any person of any sink-boat, sneak-boat, or big or swivel gun, in either of said counties, or the waters aforesaid, shall be deemed prima facie evidence of its being possessed, or sold, or disposed of, with the intent, and for the purpose of shooting at or killing wild ducks or other water-fowl in the said waters; and any big or swivel gun found at any place in either of said counties, unclaimed, may lawfully be seized by any person and destroyed or rendered useless.

Ibid.

303. If any person shall shoot at or kill any wild duck or other water-fowl of any kind, in any manner, whether from the shore or otherwise, in the night time, in, on or over the waters aforesaid, or the shores thereof, every such person, whether engaged therein directly or indirectly, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction of having violated this section,
