

period of sixty days; and from the judgment of said justice there shall be the right of appeal to the circuit court for the county where said justice resides; provided, said appeal shall be taken within ten days from the date of the rendition thereof; but execution thereon shall not be stayed unless the party appealing shall give the usual appeal bond to the State of Maryland in double the fine imposed and costs, with two sureties, to be approved by said justice.

1888, ch. 390.

313. The justices of the peace of Harford, Cecil and Baltimore counties, and the circuit courts for each of said counties, shall have concurrent jurisdiction in all cases that may arise under the provisions of section 311, when the violation of such provisions takes place on said bay; and when such violation takes place on any waters or streams forming the boundary between any of said counties, the justices of the peace of either of said counties bounding on said waters or streams, and the circuit court for either of said counties, shall have concurrent jurisdiction; and any person arrested for the violation of any of the provisions of these sections may be taken to either of said counties, for commitment and trial; and from the judgment of said justices of the peace, appeals may be taken on the terms mentioned in the next preceding section.

Ibid.

314. The board of special police, biennially appointed under section 296, are constituted officers of this State and charged with the enforcement of the provisions of sections 311-315, inclusive, so far as the same extend to the waters of said bay and its tributaries in Harford and Cecil counties northward of the line mentioned in section 311; and the sheriffs, constables and commissioned militia officers of Harford, Cecil and Baltimore counties are constituted officers of this State and charged with the enforcement of the provisions of these sections in each of said counties and upon any waters to which the same apply.

Ibid.

315. The possession at any time of any net or trap used or contrived for purposes forbidden in section 311 shall be prima facie evidence against its possessor of its being possessed for the purpose of violating that section.
