

from by due course of law; if such party against whom judgment is rendered is unable to pay the same, such fees shall be paid by the county wherein said judgment was rendered; and all fines and penalties received by any justice under the provisions of section 177, shall be accounted for and wholly paid, without abatement or deduction therefrom by such justice, to the county commissioners of the county wherein they are collected, for the use of said county, and no part of any fine or penalty enforced or collected under said section shall be paid to any informer.

LIQUOR AND INTOXICATING DRINKS.

1862, ch. 112. 1866, ch. 382. 1886, ch. 383.

180. If any person, house, company, corporation or association, or body corporate, shall sell, directly or indirectly, at any place, or give away at his, her, their or its place of business, any spirituous or fermented liquors or alcoholic bitters, or intoxicating drinks of any kind, within the limits of Anne Arundel county, except in the city of Annapolis and in the first precinct of the fifth election district of said county, he, she or they shall, on conviction thereof, forfeit and pay on the first conviction a fine of not less than fifty dollars nor more than three hundred dollars, and cost of prosecution; or instead of such fine, be imprisoned in the county jail for thirty days, or both, in the discretion of the court; and on the second and every subsequent conviction shall pay a fine of not less than one hundred dollars nor more than five hundred dollars, and cost of prosecution; and in addition to such fine, shall be imprisoned in the county jail for not less than thirty nor more than ninety days, in the discretion of the court; and on failure to pay the fine, as herein described, he, she or they shall be committed to the county jail of Anne Arundel county until such fine and the costs are paid. One-half of said fine shall go to the informer, and the residue to the board of county school commissioners of said county, for the benefit of the public schools therein; and in case of any violation of this section by any company, corporation or association, each or any member of such company, corporation or association shall be liable, and shall suffer imprisonment as herein prescribed for persons violating the same.

Chesapeake Club v. State, 63 Md. 446.