

1882, ch. 112. 1886, ch. 382. 1886, ch. 383

181. No person, company, corporation or association, shall deposit or have in his, her, their or its possession, any spirituous or fermented liquors, or alcoholic bitters, or intoxicating liquors of any kind, with intent to sell or give away the same at his, her, their or its place of business, in violation of law, or with intent that the same shall be sold or given away by any person, in violation of law, or in aid of any person for such purposes; and any person, company, corporation or association, violating the provisions of this section shall be subject to the like fines and punishments as are prescribed for violation of the preceding section.

Ibid.

182. Nothing in said two preceding sections shall be construed to prevent the compounding or sale of any such liquors for medicinal purposes by a pharmacist or druggist who shall or may obtain a license under the license law of the State, upon the written bona fide prescription of a regular practising physician, whose name shall be signed thereto; and all such prescriptions shall be filed and kept by the pharmacist or druggist; and no prescription shall serve for more than one purchase; but no physician shall make or sign any such prescription unless the person for whom it is made is actually sick, and such liquor is absolutely required as a medicine. Any physician who shall make or sign any prescription for such liquor, except as aforesaid, shall be deemed guilty of a violation of said section, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not less than fifty dollars nor more than two hundred dollars for the first offence, and not less than two hundred nor more than five hundred dollars for each subsequent offence; and if the buyer shall obtain a prescription by misrepresentation, he shall likewise be deemed guilty of a violation of said section, and upon conviction thereof shall be subject to the same fines as the physician who shall violate the same; the one-half of said fines to be paid to the informer, and the residue to the board of public school commissioners of Anne Arundel county, for the use of the public schools; and said violators shall be committed to the county jail of said county till such fines and costs are paid; but nothing herein contained shall be construed to prohibit a sale,
