1882, ch. 112. 1886, ch. 382. 1886, ch. 383.

183. All prosecutions for violation of the three preceding sections, which are declared to be criminal offences, shall be by presentment or indictment; and the State's attorney and justices of the peace having knowledge of any previous conviction of any person accused of violating the same, in preparing warrants, presentments and indictments, shall allege therein such previous conviction, and it shall be the duty of the clerk of the circuit court to furnish such information to the State's attorney and grand jury; but it shall not be necessary to set forth particularly in any such presentment or indictment the record of the former conviction, but it shall be sufficient to allege briefly that said person, company, corporation or association had been convicted of a violation of any particular provision of said sections, or any of them. Any such indictment or proceeding may be amended at any stage of the proceedings before final judgment and as a matter of right.

1886, ch. 382. 1886, ch. 383.

184. The four preceding sections shall not apply to the city of Annapolis or the first precinct of the fifth election district of the county.

ORPHANS' COURT.

P. L. L., (1860,) art. 2, sec. 132.

185. The regular terms of the orphans' court shall be held on the second Tuesday of the months of February, April, June, August, October and December, and by its adjournment, if necessary for the despatch of business, on the Tuesday of every week in the year other than the weeks of the regular terms.

Ibid. sec. 133.

186. The said court shall sit for the transaction of business from nine o'clock, A. M., till three o'clock, P. M., and the sessions shall not at any time exceed one day, except at the regular times of holding of the circuit court for said county, when the said
