

P. L. L., (1860,) art. 14, sec. 24.

21. The overseer may compel any of the inmates of said almshouse, if of sufficient ability, to work, and shall, as before directed, account for the produce of their labor.

Ibid. sec. 22.

22. No trustee shall on his own account furnish supplies of any description for the use of the almshouse, and if any trustee shall so do, he shall, upon sufficient evidence of the fact being offered to the county commissioners, forfeit for the use and benefit of the almshouse whatever supplies he may have furnished.

Ibid. sec. 23.

23. Each trustee shall be entitled to an allowance of two dollars for each day he may necessarily attend at the almshouse, or other place of meeting, in the discharge of the duties of his office.

Ibid. sec. 24.

24. The clerk of the county commissioners shall be entitled to twenty-five cents for each certificate of appointment of trustees of the almshouse he may make out and deliver to the sheriff.

Ibid. sec. 25.

25. The sheriff shall be entitled to fifty cents for the delivery of each certificate of the appointment of said trustees to the persons appointed.

Ibid. sec. 26.

26. Upon complaint made that any person, from his disorderly conduct, gives disturbance to a neighborhood, and is likely to become chargeable to said county, any justice of the peace of said county, if upon hearing the party he shall judge the complaint to be well founded, may commit such disorderly person to said almshouse for any time not exceeding three months, unless he shall find security, at the discretion of the justice, in any sum not exceeding twenty-five dollars, for his good behavior during the space of six months.

Ibid. sec. 27.

27. Upon complaint and due proof made by the overseer of the almshouse to any one trustee, that any inmate thereof hath
