

in said county, between the twenty-fourth day of December and the first day of November; nor any woodcock between the first day of February and the fourth day of July; nor any rabbits between the twenty-fourth day of December and the first day of November.

1886, ch. 135.

36. Any person violating any of the provisions of the preceding section, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof before any justice for said county, shall pay a fine of five dollars for each and every partridge, woodcock or rabbit shot or taken; one-half of said fine to be paid to the informer and the remainder as hereafter directed, and on the failure to pay said fine shall be lodged in the county jail for ten days.

Ibid.

37. It shall not be lawful for any person, not a bona fide resident of said county, to shoot or trap any partridges, woodcock, rabbits, or any other wild game in the said county, without having first obtained from the clerk of the circuit court for said county a license permitting the person named in such license to shoot or trap wild game in said county for one year from the day on which said license is issued; and the person named therein, or the party procuring such license, shall pay to said clerk for such license the sum of four dollars, and fifty cents for his fee for issuing said license; and any non-resident convicted before any justice of the peace of said county for gunning within the limits of said county without a license so to do, shall be fined twenty dollars for the first and every subsequent offence; on failure to pay said fine the offender shall be confined in the county jail for ten days; provided, that owners may extend the privilege of killing said game upon their own lands to whomsoever they may deem proper.

Ibid.

38. It shall not be lawful for any person to ship or attempt to ship for the purpose of selling elsewhere, at any season of the year, any partridges, woodcock or rabbits that have been shot or trapped in said county, into any other county or State without having first obtained from the clerk of the circuit court for said county a license permitting the person named therein to sell or
