

CIRCUIT COURT.

P. L. L., (1860,) art. 14, sec. 79.

76. There shall be two terms of the circuit court for Kent county, commencing at Chestertown on the third Monday of April and the third Monday of October in each year.

Ibid. sec. 80.

77. The judges of the circuit court for Kent county may, in their discretion, appoint intermediate terms for the transaction of business not requiring a jury, to which terms process may be also returnable.

CLERK.

1876, ch. 114.

78. The clerk of the circuit court is authorized and directed to continue the index of all judgments and decrees on the dockets of said court, in the names of all the parties to such judgments or decrees.

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS.

1876, ch. 99.

79. There shall be five commissioners for Kent county.

Ibid.

80. The county commissioners shall have the general supervision of the public roads in Kent county, and the work done thereon, and for this purpose they shall, at their first meeting in January after their election and qualification, assign among themselves the different districts of the county, one of said commissioners to each of said districts, whose duty it shall be to supervise all the public roads in the districts assigned to him, and to go over said roads at least one day and not more than two days in each month, for which services they shall be entitled to the same per diem and mileage as for other duties performed by them; and before the accounts of any person appointed as supervisor under them by the board of county commissioners are passed and paid by the said board, they shall have first the endorsement and approval of the said county commissioner thus assigned to, and put in charge of said district.
