

1874, ch. 250.

99. It shall not be lawful for any person in Kent county to carry, on the days of election, secretly or otherwise, any gun, pistol, dirk, dirk-knife, razor, billy or bludgeon; and any person violating the provisions of this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof before any justice of the peace of said county, shall be fined not less than five nor more than twenty dollars, and on refusal to pay said fine shall be committed by such justice of the peace to the jail of the county until the same shall be paid.

Ibid.

100. The fines collected under the preceding section shall be paid by the officer collecting the same, to the school commissioners of the county, for school purposes.

Ibid.

101. Any constable of said county, or the sheriff thereof, who shall refuse to arrest any person violating section 99, upon information of such offence, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof before the circuit court shall be fined not less than twenty nor more than fifty dollars, and shall forthwith be discharged from office.

FENCES.

P. L. L., (1860,) art. 14, sec. 91.

102. Wherever joint fences have been or may be established in said county, for the mutual advantage of different owners or possessors of adjoining lands, each party shall keep in good repair his proper proportion thereof, in manner following, that is to say: all post and rail or plank fences shall be at least four feet six inches high, and not more than four inches between the lower and second, and not more than five inches between the second and third rails; and all worm or other fences shall be five feet high; the height of said fences to be in every case computed from the ground or base of any embankment upon which they may be erected.

Ibid. sec. 92.

103. If either of the parties so making or keeping a joint fence shall not comply with the provisions of the preceding
