

whenever any public road forms the divisional line between two or more election districts, the expenses incurred for opening, constructing, improving or repairing the same shall be assessed against each of said districts, respectively, in proportion to the extent of the said road opened, constructed, improved and repaired in each of said districts, respectively.

1888, ch. 452.

193. Nothing in the preceding section shall in any way relate to or affect the construction, improvement or repair of the public bridges of said county spanning the navigable waters thereof, but all other public bridges shall be considered as parts of the public roads in the election districts in which they are respectively located.

1886, ch 385.

194. The said county commissioners, if in their discretion they shall deem it expedient, may make provision for the employment of one or more permanent corps of laborers for the repairs of the roads and bridges of said county, under the supervision of such officer or officers, of sufficient skill and experience for the purpose, as they may thing proper; and they may require any officer or officers appointed for such purpose to give bond in such penalty and with such security as they may fix and approve, and with such conditions as they may prescribe in regard to the duties to be performed, the use, safe-keeping, and due return of all property placed in their charge, and the proper disposal of all moneys coming into their hands for road purposes; the amount of compensation for such laborers not to exceed one dollar per day for each and every day employed.

Ibid.

195. If any person shall obstruct, fill up or otherwise wilfully injure the drains made for conducting the water from the public roads, or shall encroach upon any public roads by fences or other obstructions within fifteen feet from the center of said road, he shall be subject to a fine, for the use of the public roads of the county, of not less than ten nor more than one hundred dollars, to be recovered before any justice of the peace of said county at the suit of the county commissioners.
