

posed streets, lanes or alleys, to the different persons owning property in said town, and make a return to the said town commissioners, of the money value of such advantages and damages; and upon said return, the town commissioners shall have the power to assess and levy upon the taxable property of said town such a sum as may be necessary to open such streets, lanes or alleys, and for the purpose of making other improvements in said town; but such levy shall not be more than twenty-five cents in the hundred dollars of assessable property for any one year.

P. L. L., (1860,) art. 14, sec. 106.

132. Should any property-holder in said town be dissatisfied with said assessment and levy of damages, he may appeal to the circuit court for Kent county within one year and have the same reduced or abated upon showing sufficient cause.

Ibid. sec. 107.

133. The said town commissioners shall have power to make such ordinances as may be necessary to protect and advance the health, peace and welfare of the town, not contrary to law.

Ibid. sec. 108.

134. The limits of said town shall be a square, whose sides shall measure eight hundred and eighty yards each, and said sides shall be four hundred and forty yards distant from the centre of the crossing of the present roads in said town.

Ibid. sec. 109.

135. The said corporation shall issue no scrip, certificate, note, or other device or evidence of debt, to be used as a currency.

JURORS.

P. L. L., (1860,) art. 14, sec. 112.

136. The county commissioners shall levy annually, one year in advance, such sum of money as they may deem sufficient to discharge all claims which may accrue for the attendance of jurors for the two succeeding terms of the circuit court.