

1884, ch. 510.

145. The aforesaid fees of said constables and justices for said counties shall be taxed against and paid by the party against whom judgment shall be rendered, unless he or she be discharged therefrom by due course of law; if such party against whom judgment is rendered is unable to pay the same, such fees shall be paid by the county wherein said judgment was rendered; and all fines and penalties received by any justice under the provisions of section 143, shall be accounted for and wholly paid without abatement or deduction therefrom by such justice, to the county commissioners of the county wherein they are collected, for the use of said county, and no part of any fine or penalty enforced or collected under said section shall be paid to any informer.

LANDINGS.

P. L. L., (1860,) art. 14, sec. 117.

146. The proceedings for the establishment, making, altering or closing any public landings in Kent county, shall be in all respects the same as prescribed by the laws of this State for opening, altering or closing roads.

Ibid. sec. 118.

147. No lot or piece of ground condemned for a public landing in Kent county shall exceed one acre of land in extent.

LIQUOR AND INTOXICATING DRINKS.

1878, ch. 161.

148. It shall not be lawful for any person or body corporate to sell spirituous or fermented liquors or alcoholic bitters in Kent county.

Ibid.

149. If any person or body corporate shall be guilty of a violation of the preceding section, in selling spirituous or fermented liquors or alcoholic bitters in said county, he or they on conviction thereof shall be fined by the circuit court where such conviction is had, in the sum of not more than three hundred dollars nor less than fifty dollars for every such offence, in the discretion of the court.
