MILLINGTON.

P. L. L. (1860,) art. 14, sec. 119.

153. The male citizens of Millington, in Kent county, including therein the place formerly called Sandtown, in Queen Anne's county, residing and having families therein, shall, on the second Saturday of March, annually, between the hours of two and five o'clock, P. M., elect five inhabitants of said town as commissioners for one year from the first day of April next ensuing; and the said commissioners, by the name of "The Commissioners of Millington," are a body politic, with power to sue and be sued, and to have and use a common seal, and alter the same at pleasure.

Ibid. sec. 120.

154. The said commissioners shall give at least ten days' public notice of said election, and any justice of the peace may preside thereat; and if no justice be present at the time of holding said election, the commissioners may hold the same.

Ibid. sec. 121.

155. If anything shall prevent the said election from being held on the day appointed, the commissioners shall appoint another day for holding the same, and shall give notice thereof at least five days previous thereto; and the commissioners shall fill up all vacancies in their own body which may happen within the year.
