

P. L. L., (1860,) art. 14, sec. 127.

161. He shall attend the meetings of said commissioners whenever required, to perform such services as shall be directed by the commissioners.

Ibid. sec. 128.

162. The said commissioners may allow such compensation to the clerk of the market and bailiff as they may think proper.

Ibid. sec. 129.

163. No person shall suffer his hogs to go at large within the circle of half a mile from the mill in said town, and the commissioners may provide for enforcing this section.

Ibid. sec. 130.

164. All penalties, fines and forfeitures which may be incurred by any person under the provisions of this sub-title of this article, in relation to Millington, may be recovered in the name of the said commissioners, before a justice of the peace, as small debts, and shall be appropriated to the benefit of said town.

OFFICERS' FEES.

1876, ch. 216.

165. All accounts for officers' fees shall be made out in a fair and clear manner, and in words at length; and whenever any person interested in them, or to whom the same are charged, shall require a copy of such account, said officers shall in as short a time as may be convenient, give him an account of said charges in words at length; and no account for officers' fees, rendered for services to or in behalf of any county of this State, shall be allowed by the county commissioners thereof, until said account has been submitted to and approved by the circuit court for said county.

Ibid.

166. The preceding section shall only apply to the counties of Kent, Caroline, Talbot, Prince George's, Queen Anne's, Charles, Harford and Dorchester.
