any road district, to levy upon the assessable property within such road district, an additional special tax of not more than ten cents on the hundred dollars, to be collected as other county taxes, and to be expended under the direction of the county commissioners in the improvement of the roads within said district.

1886, ch. 885.

199. Every supervisor shall be liable, in an action on his bond in the name of the State, for any damage resulting from any dereliction in the performance of his duties, or he shall be liable to indictment in the circuit court for said county and may be fined, at the discretion of the court; and the fines imposed shall likewise be applied to the road fund of his said district.

Ibid.

200. If any person shall purposely destroy or injure any bridge or culvert, or dig any ditch or drain across any road and not keep such ditch or drain secure and well covered and in good repair for the passage of all vehicles over the same to the full width of said road, or if any person shall drain any water into or upon any public road, for such offence and for each and every day any such ditch or drain shall be suffered to remain out of repair and injurious to such road, he shall be liable to be sued in an action of debt before a justice of the peace in the name of the said commissioners, in which said action the amount recoverable shall not be less than five nor more than fifty dollars, each party having the right of appeal to the circuit court, as in other cases of small debts; and the sums recovered in any such action shall be applied to the use of the public roads of the county.

1882, ch. 37.

201. It shall not be lawful for any person, with or without the consent of the county commissioners, to erect, have or keep any gate upon the main public roads of Anne Arundel county; and the road supervisors of said county shall cause all gates to be removed therefrom in their respective districts.

Ibid.

202. Any person who shall, in any way or manner, hinder, obstruct, molest or disturb any supervisor in the performance of