

said clerks, respectively, the sum of ten dollars for each and every gunning season, as specified in section 208.

1880, ch. 42.

210. Every applicant for a license shall be required to make oath before the clerk of the circuit court for Kent or Cecil county that he is a bona fide resident of Kent or Cecil county, respectively, and that he will obey and comply with all the provisions of sections 208, 209 and 210; and every person to whom such license may be granted shall be required to paint the number or name of his sink-box on some prominent part thereof, to correspond with the number or name in said license; and no owner, hirer, borrower or other person shall use or employ any sink-box of any description whatever, for the purpose of shooting at wild water-fowl therefrom, in the waters described in section 208, without such license to so use and employ said box having first been obtained.

Ibid.

211. Upon information being given under oath to any justice of the peace of Kent or Cecil county, of any violation of any of the provisions of sections 208, 209 or 210, the said justice of the peace shall issue his warrant for the arrest of the offender, and the seizure of all sink boxes and vessels, decoys, tackle or other furniture belonging thereto, which warrant shall be directed to the sheriff or any constable of Kent or Cecil county, or to one or more of those holding such licenses and constituted as officers to carry out the provisions of said sections; and any one resisting an officer or other person authorized to make arrests or seizures shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon indictment and conviction in the circuit court for Kent or Cecil county shall pay a fine of not less than fifty dollars and not more than one hundred dollars, or be imprisoned in the county jail for not less than thirty days nor more than sixty days, or be both fined and imprisoned in the discretion of the court.

Ibid.

212. When fines are so imposed for violations of any of said sections, and the offender refuses to pay the same, the sheriff or constable may proceed, at public sale, after giving three weeks' notice of the time and place of such sale, by advertisement in one
