

newspaper in said county, to dispose of the sink box or other craft, together with the decoys, tackle and furniture belonging thereto, to the highest bidder for cash; and the proceeds of such sale, after deducting all legal expenses, shall be appropriated to the payment of said fines, and the residue, if any, shall be paid to the owner.

1880, ch. 42.

213. Any party against whom any justice of the peace may render a judgment under any of said sections, may, at any time within ten days thereafter, appeal from such judgment to the circuit court for Kent or Cecil county; but no execution or sale shall be stayed unless the party appealing shall give bond, with two sufficient securities, to be approved by the justice, to the State of Maryland, in double the amount of the fine imposed, with the condition to prosecute such appeal with effect to the circuit court at its next session thereafter, and to pay the fine imposed, and all costs attending such proceedings, in case judgment shall be affirmed.

Ibid.

214. If any person shall violate any of the provisions of said sections in regard to the shooting of wild fowl, he shall, upon conviction thereof before any justice of the peace for Kent or Cecil county, be fined not less than fifty dollars nor more than one hundred dollars, except as follows: any one who shall shoot wild fowl from a sink box, duly licensed as aforesaid, upon any other day than those mentioned in section 208, shall, upon conviction thereof before any justice of the peace for Kent or Cecil county, pay a fine of not less than ten nor more than twenty dollars for each offence.

Ibid.

215. All fines imposed under any of said sections, whether the same may be recovered by action of debt in the name of the State, which process is hereby authorized, or secured by public sale, as provided in section 212, shall be divided as follows, viz: one-half to the informer and the other half to the county commissioners of Kent or Cecil county, respectively, for the use and benefit of said county; and all moneys accruing from the sale of such licenses shall be paid over at the end of the gunning
