season to the commissioners of said counties, respectively, to be applied by them to the use and benefit of said respective counties.

1880, ch. 42.

216. All persons holding a license under sections 209–210, are hereby vested with power and authority to arrest, without warrant, all persons who may be detected by them in violating any of the provisions of said sections, or of the provisions of the code of public general laws regulating the shooting of wild fowl, remaining in force over said waters, and to carry such person before a justice of the peace, to be dealt with according to law.

1882, ch. 169.

217. It shall not be unlawful for persons to shoot at or shoot any water-fowl flying about their feeding grounds in Kent county, from vessel, boat, float, canoe or craft of any kind; and section 3 of article 99 of the code of public general laws, title "Wild Fowl," shall not apply to Kent county.

1886, ch. 135.

218. It shall be lawful to shoot ducks or other wild fowl from the shore over decoys in said county.

1872, ch. 54.

219. If any person shall violate any of the provisions of sections 380 to 402 of article 7, title "Cecil county," or sections 278 to 300 of article 13, title "Harford county," he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be liable for the fine imposed for such violation, and the same may be recovered by action of debt, in the name of the State, before a justice of the peace of either Kent, Cecil or Harford county, or by indictment in the circuit court of either of said counties; and when any person is convicted of the violation of any of the provisions of said sections, and refuses or neglects to pay the fine for which judgment is given against him, he shall be committed to the county jail for a period of time not less than twenty and not more than forty days, but the party so committed shall be released on the payment of the fine, costs and jail expenses.

Ibid.

220. Justices of the peace for Kent, Cecil and Harford counties, and the circuit courts for said counties, shall have con-