

113. Judges of elections; their duties; hours during which polls must be kept open; first election, when to be held; judges.
114. Bailiff; his powers and duties.
115. Oath to be made by commissioners and other officers; certificate to be recorded.
116. Commissioners to receive returns, and decide all questions arising out of elections.
117. Commissioners; general powers.
118. Assessment, not to exceed county assessment; tax, maximum rate
119. Tax list; warrant to bailiff, bailiff's power to distrain.
120. Bailiff to collect taxes and pay over within six months.
121. Fines and penalties, how collected.
122. Annual expenditures not to exceed annual receipts.
123. State and county officers to have jurisdiction in town; one half of county taxes from property in town to be paid to commissioners of the town
- Jurors, State's Witnesses, Crier and Bailiffs.
124. Expenses incurred by attendance of, to be paid by levy; amount so levied, how collected; default of collectors; penalty; how recovered.
125. Certificates of attendance, by whom paid; failure to pay, penalty.
126. Certificate of attendance.
- Justices of the Peace and Constables.
127. Number of, and their districts
128. Summons out of the election district of defendant, transmission of the papers.
129. Constables acting as court bailiffs; pay.
130. Justices of the peace, jurisdiction. prayer for jury trial, proceedings.
131. Fees.
132. By whom paid; in case defendant unable to pay; fines and forfeitures to be accounted for; no part to go to informer.
- Liquor and Intoxicating Drinks.
133. Sale of, unlawful.
134. Violations of section 133, penalty.
- Lime.
135. Unlawful measure.
136. Penalty
137. Recovery of deficiency or its value by purchaser.
- Orphans' Court.
138. Terms, court may be held as often as needful
139. Judges; powers of less than the whole number.
- Poolesville.
140. Citizens a body corporate, corporate name; powers, seal.
141. Corporate limits.
142. Election of commissioners; how many, qualifications of electors; of commissioners; term of office and pay of commissioners.
143. President, how chosen, vacancies in commissioners, how filled.
144. Meetings, when to be held.
145. Judges of election; their duties; no pay; during what hours polls to be open.
146. Clerk, his duties; minutes of proceedings of commissioners to be open to inspection.
147. Chief bailiff, under-bailiffs.
148. Chief clerk, chief bailiff, under-bailiff; pay.
149. Oath to be made by officers of the corporation.
150. Clerk and chief bailiff, bond.
151. Returns of elections, questions arising thereon, appeal from decision.
152. Commissioners; general powers.
153. Commissioners, powers in the matter of health and sanitation