

do upon the demand of the said trustees, he shall forfeit the sum of ten dollars for each and every day of said neglect or refusal, to be recovered by indictment in the circuit court for said county, and the amount of said forfeiture, when recovered, shall be for the use of said trustees.

P. L. L., (1860,) art. 15, sec. 9.

10. The trustees shall purchase and buy for the use and employment of the poor of said county, and the vagrants, beggars, vagabonds and offenders who may be committed to said almshouse, sufficient beds, bedding, working tools, kitchen utensils, cows, horses and other necessaries; and they shall keep an account of all monies expended by them and return a true copy thereof, with the vouchers for the same, to the county commissioners, yearly, to be by them inspected and examined.

Ibid. sec. 10.

11. They shall meet at the almshouse four times in the year, in the first week in January, May, August and November, or oftener if necessary, to make, by a majority of votes of such as may be present, such rules and by-laws as they may think convenient and necessary for the direction, government and support of the almshouse, and for the cleanliness, maintenance and employment of all poor persons therein, and of all vagrants, beggars, vagabonds and offenders that may be committed thereto.

Ibid. sec. 11.

12. The said overseer shall keep a fair and regular list of all poor, and of all vagrants, beggars, vagabonds and offenders committed to said almshouse.

Ibid. sec. 12.

13. He shall also keep regular accounts of all materials which may come to his hands as overseer, and all money received by him for the sale of the produce of the labor of the inmates of the almshouse, or otherwise, and lay them before the trustees at their regular meetings, or oftener if required.

Ibid. sec. 13.

14. He may compel any of the said poor, beggars, vagrants, vagabonds or offenders in the almshouse to work, if of sufficient
