

within thirty days after the delivery or publication of such account, collect the same, with all costs, by distress and sale of the real and personal property of the delinquent at public auction, after giving at least ten days' notice of such sale in some newspaper published in said county.

1888, ch. 254.

44. The president of the commissioners shall execute and deliver to the purchaser a deed of the property so sold; and the said deed shall convey to the purchaser the said property, and shall be presumptive evidence of all the requirements of law having been complied with in making such sale and deed.

Ibid

45. The chief bailiff shall make all collections required of him, and pay the same to the clerk within six months from the time the tax bill is placed in his hand.

Ibid

46. The chief bailiff shall attend the meetings of the commissioners, and perform such duties as they shall direct, shall preserve the peace and good order of the town, and for this purpose is invested with the same power and authority as any constable has under the laws of this State.

Ibid.

47. The president shall preside at all meetings of the commissioners, and shall have all the powers of a justice of the peace, where the commissioners are a party, and shall receive the same fees allowed justices of the peace in similar cases, and an appeal from his judgment, where the demand or fine exceeds five dollars, may be taken to the circuit court for Montgomery county, which shall hear and determine the matter as upon appeals from justices of the peace.

Ibid.

48. The chief bailiff shall have the same fees for making distress for taxes as are allowed county collectors, and for making arrest, or serving process for violations of any ordinances of the corporation, the same as are allowed constables for similar ser-
