

vices; and when the bailiff wilfully fails to discharge any duties of his office, he may be fined not exceeding ten dollars for any one offence.

1888, ch. 254.

49. Any fines, penalties and forfeitures imposed by this charter, or by any ordinance of the commissioners, may be collected by proceedings in the name of the commissioners or a justice of the peace; and the said president or justice of the peace shall have power to commit the offender to the county jail, on failure to pay such fines and forfeitures, until the same shall be paid with cost.

Ibid.

50. The commissioners shall not expend or contract to expend, in any one year, more money than the amount receivable from taxes and other sources for that year.

Ibid.

51. The commissioners for the county, justices of the peace, sheriffs, constables and all State and county officers, shall have, hold and exercise their offices and jurisdiction in said town as if the charter of said town had not been granted; and the commissioners for Montgomery county shall appropriate, annually, one-half of the tax levied or imposed upon the assessable property within the corporate limits of the town, and shall order the county collectors, who shall collect the taxes within said corporate limits, to pay said one-half thereof to the commissioners of said town for that purpose.

Ibid.

52. The commissioners shall have power to establish building lines on all the streets in said town, or which shall hereafter be opened therein, and to compel all persons hereafter erecting buildings in said town to conform thereto.

BIRDS AND GAME.
