

tion or prejudice, so help me God;" and the said oath shall be recorded in the office of the clerk of the circuit court for said county.

P. L. L. (1860,) art. 15, sec. 28.

63. In case of a vacancy in the office of clerk, such vacancy shall be supplied by the county commissioners as soon thereafter as may be practicable.

Ibid. sec 29.

64. The clerk to said county commissioners shall be entitled to two dollars a day for every day he shall attend upon them, and such additional compensation as they may allow.

1880, ch 325.

65. It shall be the duty of the county commissioners to publish, in their annual exhibit of receipts and expenditures, the amount of monies received from the sheriff of said county as costs collected by him in criminal cases; also the amount of monies remaining in the hands of said commissioners as unexpended balances due pensioners who have died during the year, for which such pensioners were allowed; also the amount of monies repaid from other counties for monies expended in the trial of cases removed from such counties for trial in the circuit court for Montgomery county; also the amount of monies remaining in the hands of the commissioners over and above what has been actually required to pay the existing creditors of the county.

1882, ch. 38.

66. To redeem the bonds issued under the act of 1882, chapter 38, the county commissioners shall annually levy upon the assessable property of said county a tax sufficient to pay the interest thereon, and the principal of such portion as may mature in each year after the date of their issue; the coupons on said bonds shall be redeemable in payment of county taxes; and said levy shall be designated as "the school debt fund."

CRIER.

1880, ch. 347.

67. The crier of the circuit court for Montgomery county is allowed two dollars and a half for each and every day he may