

in criminal cases when the commissioners are a party, and shall receive the same fees allowed to a justice of the peace in similar cases; and an appeal from his judgment, where the demand or fine exceeds five dollars, may be taken to the circuit court for Montgomery county, which shall hear and determine the matter as upon appeals from justices of the peace.

1878, ch 397.

101. Any fines, penalties and forfeitures imposed by this charter, or by any ordinance of the commissioners, may be collected by proceedings in the name of the commissioners before the president of the commissioners or a justice of the peace, similar to those for the collection of small debts before justices of the peace; and the said president or justice of the peace shall have the power to commit the offender to the county jail, on failure to pay such fines or forfeitures, until the same shall be paid, with costs.

Ibid.

102. The commissioners shall not expend or contract to expend in any one year more money than the amount receivable from taxes and other sources for that year.

1880, ch. 320. 1888, ch 541.

103. The county commissioners, justices of the peace, sheriff, constables and all other county and State officers, shall have, hold and exercise their offices and jurisdiction in said town as if this charter had not been granted; and the county commissioners shall appropriate annually one-half of the tax, levied or imposed upon the assessable property within the corporate limits of the town, for the improvement of the streets within the corporate limits of the town, and shall order the county collectors, who shall collect the taxes within said corporate limits, to pay said one-half thereof to the commissioners of said town for that purpose.

104. They shall have power to establish building lines on all the streets in said town, or which shall hereafter be opened therein, and to compel all persons hereafter erecting buildings in said town to conform thereto.
