

corner opposite the lane on the west side of said town; thence with a line parallel with the county road, through the lands of Mrs. M. P. Brengle and Mrs. A. C. Hyatt, to intersect the lane on the west side of said town at lot number eighty-two; thence with the lane on the west side of said town as far as the plat of said town extends; thence with a straight line one hundred and ninety-eight feet through the lands of A. J. Tabler; thence with a straight line through the lands of A. J. Tabler, across the county road to the place of beginning.

1888, ch. 103.

109. The male citizens of Hyattstown of the age of twenty-one years and upward, who have resided in said town for six months next preceding the election, shall, on the first Monday in May annually, elect three freeholders who have resided in said town for six months next preceding said election, as commissioners of Hyattstown, to serve for one year, or until their successors shall be elected and qualified. They shall receive no pay for their services.

Ibid.

110. The three commissioners shall, at their first meeting after an election, elect one of their number to be president of the board, and all vacancies in the board of commissioners shall be filled by an election held after ten days' notice given by the remaining commissioners.

Ibid.

111. They shall meet in said town on or before the first Monday in June succeeding their election, and from time to time as occasion may require.

Ibid.

112. They shall annually appoint a clerk, who shall keep the minutes of their proceedings in a well bound book, which shall be open to the inspection of all persons interested therein, and shall perform such other duties as the commissioners may assign him.

Ibid

113. They shall annually, on or before the first Monday in April, appoint three judges of election, who shall conduct the