

1864, ch. 395. 1878, ch. 111.

220. If any horse, mule, horned cattle, sheep or swine shall remain so impounded for five days after notice given as aforesaid, the party so impounding it or them may sell the same at public auction, after two days' notice, as provided in the preceding section, for the payment of costs and expenses, including the said fifty cents per day.

Ibid.

221. All disputes arising between the owners of any horse, mule, horned cattle, sheep or swine and the person impounding them, shall be determined by a justice of the peace of said county, who may summon witnesses and decide the matter in controversy.

TREASURER.

1884, ch. 462.

222. The county commissioners, on the first Tuesday in the month of April in every second year, accounting from the year eighteen hundred and eighty-five, or as soon thereafter as possible, shall appoint a person of sound judgment and skill as an accountant, county treasurer for said county, who shall give bond and qualify as directed in the succeeding section, and shall hold his office for two years, or until his successor is appointed and qualified, except as hereinafter provided, and shall be re-eligible thereto, and shall be subject to removal from his said office at any time by the said county commissioners for any wilful neglect of duty or misbehavior in office. The said treasurer shall be the collector of all State taxes and of all county taxes, for whatsoever purpose levied or to be levied for or within said county, during the term of his office, or that may be placed in his hands for collection; and he shall have full power, and it shall be his duty, to receive and collect all State and county taxes levied as aforesaid, or so put in his hands for collection, and all monies which may be due the said county, with full power to enforce the payment of the same by sale or otherwise, and to convey title to any real or personal estate duly sold by him for the payment of State or county taxes, according to law.

1884, ch. 465.

223. The person so appointed, before he enters upon the duties of his said office, shall take an oath before the clerk of the
