

P. L. L., (1860,) art. 16, sec. 6.

6. They may use a common seal, and may change the same at their pleasure.

1884, ch. 166.

7. The county commissioners shall fill all vacancies that may occur in the office of trustees; and it shall be the duty of the said trustees to superintend all the purchases, contracts and arrangements of the almshouse.

Ibid.

8. The said trustees shall be entitled to two dollars a day for every day they shall attend to their said duties, not exceeding one day in one month.

P. L. L., (1860,) art. 16, sec. 9.

9. They shall meet on the first Monday of June and on the third Monday of April, annually, and as much oftener as they may deem necessary, and make, by a majority of votes of such as may be present, such rules and by-laws, for the government and support of said almshouse, and the management of the inmates thereof, as they may think proper; all meetings of said trustees shall be held at the almshouse, except such as may be necessary for the settlement of their accounts with the county commissioners.

Ibid. sec. 10.

10. They shall appoint annually, at such time as they think proper, and may remove, at pleasure, an overseer of said almshouse, and all such officers and servants as they may think proper.

1884, ch. 166.

11. They shall purchase sufficient beds, bedding, working tools, kitchen utensils, cows, horses, and all other necessaries for said almshouse, from time to time; shall keep a regular account thereof, and under a penalty of fifty dollars each, shall render the same, with the vouchers therefor, to the county commissioners at their first meeting in the month of May, in each year; and the said accounts shall be passed and settled by the said commissioners previous to making the appointment of trustees for the ensuing year.
