

county at the same time, nor shall the county commissioners upon any pretext be empowered to pay more than six hundred dollars for any one year's printing or publishing.

1868, ch. 330.

96. The county commissioners shall lay their annual levy for State and county taxes on or before the last Monday in March in each and every year.

1868, ch. 351.

97. They are authorized and empowered to issue coupon bonds to an amount not exceeding twenty-five thousand dollars, in sums of not less than one hundred dollars nor more than one thousand dollars, to be signed by the president of said board of county commissioners and countersigned by the clerk thereof, and under the corporate seal of said commissioners, bearing interest at the rate of five per cent. per annum, payable annually on the first day of July in each year; and the coupons on said bonds, when they become due, shall be received by the treasurer of said county in payment of county taxes.

Ibid.

98. Said bonds shall be payable as follows: Five thousand dollars thereof in five years from their date, and five thousand dollars thereof in ten years, and five thousand dollars in fifteen years, and ten thousand dollars in twenty years, until the whole of said bonds are paid.

Ibid.

99. The county commissioners are authorized and required to sell said bonds to the best advantage to the highest bidder for cash at a public letting thereof to be held by said county commissioners; provided, however, that they shall not sell any of said bonds for less than par; and provided, also, that the premium, if any, derived from the sale of said bonds shall be devoted to the payment of the interest thereon.

Ibid.

100. The money arising from the sale of said bonds shall be used for the payment of the current expenses of said county provided for by the annual levy of the county commissioners of
