

according as they are paid, on or before said respective dates; and after the treasurer has given the notices by public advertisement, as directed by this section, it shall only be necessary for him to levy upon the real or personal property within the limits of Prince George's county, of any delinquent, and after giving at least twenty days' notice of the time, terms and place of sale, by advertisement in at least one newspaper published in said county, he shall on the premises or at the court-house door of said county, proceed to sell, by public auction, the property so levied on, for cash to the highest bidder, retaining out of the proceeds of such sale the amount of the taxes due from such delinquent, with interest thereon, together with the cost incurred in making such sale, and he shall pay the surplus, if any, to the owner thereof.

109. He shall keep and pay over, according to law or upon the order of the county commissioners, the proceeds of all county taxes levied in said county and collected by him, and shall also keep and pay over to the treasurer of the State, according to law, all the State taxes levied in said county and collected by him; and he shall keep a full, particular and correct account of all monies received by him and paid out, and of all matters relating to the duties of his office, together with all vouchers relating thereto; and he shall, when required, present to the county commissioners a true and faithful exhibit of all monies received by him and of all that have been paid out by him.

110. In case of his death or resignation during his term of office, the governor of the State shall, within twenty days thereafter, appoint a county treasurer for the unexpired term thus made vacant, who shall take the oath, give the bond, and perform all the duties as hereinbefore prescribed by law, but shall not take charge of or collect any of the taxes that may be in the hands of the late treasurer uncollected, for which the bond of the late treasurer is responsible; but such taxes shall be collected under existing laws for the collectors of State and county taxes, where there is death or resignation.
