

the county commissioners for each current year, he shall be entitled to be paid by them the full commission on the whole amount of State and county taxes received by him and satisfactorily accounted for according to law.

1888, ch. 502.

113. He shall fully settle up with the county commissioners, within eighteen months from the date of their levy, all taxes placed in his hands for collection, after which time his bond shall be liable to suit for any taxes uncollected as aforesaid; and it shall be the duty of the county commissioners, and they are required to enter suit upon the bond of said treasurer and collector for all county taxes remaining uncollected in the hands of the collector eighteen months after the same were levied.

Ibid.

114. All moneys belonging to the county, and collected by the treasurer and collector thereof, shall be deposited in bank in the name of the treasurer of said county, as treasurer and collector of said county, and under no circumstances be deposited in his own name alone.

1878, ch. 73.

115. The treasurer shall be entitled to a clerk, to be appointed by himself, whose pay shall be five hundred dollars per annum; and the county commissioners shall levy an amount at their annual levy-laying term sufficient to pay the salary of said clerk; and the said treasurer shall have the right, within twelve months after the expiration of the term of his office, to return to the county commissioners a list of all taxes uncollected by him, together with all expenses attending the same; and if, upon examination by the county commissioners, his statement is found correct, and the said treasurer has complied with the law requiring him to enforce the payment of said unpaid taxes, they shall receive the said list so returned and release the said treasurer and the sureties on his bond from all liability on account of the amount so returned by him, and place the said taxes so returned, in the hands of the treasurer of said county, to be collected and accounted for by him as other taxes placed in his hands for collection.
