

sub-title of this article as fully as if she were a feme sole, and her separate estate shall be responsible therefor.

1880, ch. 289.

147. In all other cases of trespass by stock, the party trespassed upon shall be entitled to recover from the owner of the stock trespassing, the amount of damage done by such trespass, as other debts are now recovered; and in case the owner of said stock shall be a married woman, she may be sued therefor, and judgment may be recovered against her as fully as if she were a feme sole, which said judgment may be enforced by execution against her separate estate; and the stock so found trespassing shall be also liable, in all cases, for the damage committed, and may be held by the party trespassed upon and damaged until the full amount of such damage, and the cost of keeping and impounding such stock, shall be paid; and the judgment rendered for such damage shall be a lien upon said stock so found trespassing from the date of said trespass, which said lien shall not be affected or destroyed by any alienation, sale or other transfer of said stock subsequent to the date of said trespass.

●

FISH.

1878, ch. 452.

148. It shall be unlawful for any person to catch, trap or kill any of the fish known as trout, bass, or salmon, in the waters of the eastern branch of the Potomac and its tributaries in Prince George's county, unless taken with hook and line, and between the fifteenth day of August and the fifteenth day of May.

Ibid.

149. Any person violating any of the provisions of the preceding section, upon conviction before a justice of the peace of said county, shall be fined not less than three dollars nor more than ten dollars for each offence; and upon failure to pay said fine and the costs of prosecution, shall be sentenced to be confined in the county jail for a period not less than five days nor more than fifteen days.