

1886, ch 424.

175. The county commissioners, justices of the peace, sheriff, constables, and all county and State officers, shall have, hold and exercise their offices and jurisdiction in said town; and the county commissioners shall appropriate annually the full amount of road tax levied or imposed upon the assessable property within the corporate limits of the town, and shall order the county treasurer, who shall collect the taxes within said corporate limits, to pay said road taxes to the commissioners of the town, for the improvement of the streets and roads within the corporate limits of the town.

Ibid.

176. The commissioners shall have power to establish building lines on all the streets in the town, or which shall hereafter be opened therein, and to compel all persons erecting buildings in said town to conform thereto.

1880, ch 10.

177. The clerk of the circuit court for Prince George's county shall not grant a license to any person to sell spirituous or fermented liquors of any kind at any place at the village of Hyattville north of the branch of the Potomac river, which separates Hyattville from the town of Bladensburg, or within an area of one-half mile from the station of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad company at Hyattville, in said county; and any person selling any spirituous or fermented liquors or any kind of intoxicating drink, whether of original manufacture or of a mixed character, within the above-described limits, shall, on conviction, be subject to the same fines and punishments now provided by the code of public general laws for selling such liquors without a license.

JURORS.

1870, ch. 331.

178. When the list of names selected, as prescribed by the code of public general laws, is made and certified, the judge of the circuit court, in the presence of the members of the bar, and such other persons as may think proper to be present, shall cause all the names selected and placed on the list to be legibly written
