

1880, ch. 82. 1884, ch. 233.

252. In addition to the respective amounts to be paid by any person, house, corporation, company or association, for taking out license under article 56 of the code of public general laws, title "Licenses," relating to spirituous or fermented liquors by retailers and oyster or eating-houses, or under any other section of said article, the said person, house, corporation, company or association, if he or they intend to sell or barter spirituous or fermented liquors or alcoholic bitters, or all combined, in any of the districts of Prince George's except the tenth, as to which district provision is made by sections 247-251, in quantities more than a pint or less than a pint, or by the drink, shall pay to the clerk of the circuit court for Prince George's county the sum of one hundred dollars for the use of the public roads of Prince George's county, before any such license shall be granted; and if any person, house, corporation, company or association shall open or keep, in any of said districts except the tenth, any oyster house, cook-shop, victualing-house or lager beer saloon, or any other than an ordinary, at or in which spirituous or fermented liquors or lager beer may be sold or bartered in quantities less than a pint at any one time, or by the drink, then such applicant, in addition to the amount to be paid the State of Maryland, shall also pay to the clerk of the said circuit court the further sum of one hundred dollars, for the use of said public roads of said county.

1884, ch. 283.

253. No spirituous or fermented liquors or alcoholic bitters shall be sold in any election district of said county except as provided for by section 252, and also upon the following terms: that each and every applicant, person, house, corporation, company or association, shall be recommended to the said clerk by five respectable freeholders of his or their immediate vicinity as fit persons to traffic in the article; and in no event shall any person sell such article on the Sabbath day, commonly called Sunday; and for the violation of this section, such person, natural or artificial, shall forfeit and pay, on conviction, a fine of not less than fifty nor more than three hundred dollars, and costs of prosecution, or instead of such fine shall be imprisoned in the county