

ber, in each year, or oftener if need be, according to their own adjournment; and all process issued from said court, unless the court shall otherwise order, shall be returnable to said terms.

OUT-PENSIONERS.

P. L. L., (1860,) art. 16, sec. 124.

264. The county commissioners shall have full power to allow pensions to all persons, residents and citizens of said county who, in their judgment, may be entitled thereto.

PISCATAWAY.

P. L. L., (1860,) art. 16, sec. 110.

265. The citizens of the village of Piscataway, in Prince George's county, are a body corporate, by the name of "The Commissioners of Piscataway," and by that name may sue and be sued, and may have and use a common seal.

Ibid. sec. 111.

266. The male citizens of the village of Piscataway, qualified to vote for members of the general assembly, shall, on the first Monday of May in each year, elect three of the said citizens commissioners of said village.

Ibid. sec. 112.

267. All elections shall be held and conducted as shall from time to time be directed by the by-laws of the commissioners, not inconsistent with the provisions of this charter.

Ibid. sec. 113.

268. If, during the year for which they were elected, any of said commissioners shall die, resign, refuse to serve or remove from said village, an election to fill the vacancy shall be held after five days' notice, set up at the most public places in the village; and all persons qualified to vote at a regular election shall be entitled to vote at such special election.
