

P. L. L., (1860,) art. 16, sec. 118.

273. All fines imposed under the ordinances and by-laws of the said commissioners, shall be recoverable in the name of the said commissioners, before a justice of the peace for said county as small debts.

Ibid. sec. 119.

274. The said commissioners shall receive no compensation for their services.

Ibid. sec. 120.

275. Any constable in said village or the district in which it is situated, may impound any swine or geese he shall find going at large therein; and any constable so doing, shall immediately set up notices thereof at the most public places in said village for at least three days, inserting in such notices the marks and description of the said geese or swine, and if the same are not claimed within five days after impounding them, and the expenses of impounding or keeping them, as determined by a justice of the peace, paid, together with the sum of fifty cents for every hog, and twelve and a half cents for every goose, the same shall, after two days' notice, in writing, of the time and place of sale, be sold by the constable at public sale, and the proceeds applied first to the payment of the expense of impounding and keeping them, and of the residue, one-half shall go to the constable, and the other half to the commissioners of said village for the use of the village.

Ibid. sec. 121.

276. Any constable neglecting or refusing to perform the duty required of him in the preceding section, shall forfeit the sum of five dollars for each neglect, to be recovered before a justice of the peace, as small debts, one-half to the informer and the other half to the said commissioners for the use of the village.

REGISTER OF WILLS.

P. L. L., (1860,) art. 16, sec. 125.

277. The register of wills in said county shall be entitled to an annual allowance from the county commissioners, sufficient to supply his office with fuel.
