

ROADS.

1874, ch. 265.

278. It shall not be lawful for any person, with or without the consent of the county commissioners, to erect, have or keep any gate upon the public roads of the county; and the road supervisors of said county shall cause all gates to be removed therefrom in their respective districts.

Ibid.

279. Any person who shall in any way or manner hinder, obstruct, molest or disturb any supervisor in the performance of the duties required of him under the provisions of the preceding section, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and be liable to presentment and indictment by the grand jury of the county, and shall, on conviction thereof by a court of law, be fined in a sum not less than twenty-five dollars nor more than one hundred dollars, and be imprisoned in the county jail for not less than thirty days nor more than ninety days, or both, in the discretion of the court before which he shall be tried and convicted; the said fine to be applied to the road fund of the county.

1874, ch. 205. 1888, ch. 230.

280. The county commissioners of Prince George's county shall divide the county in road districts, not exceeding fourteen, for each of which they shall appoint a supervisor of skill and ability, who shall have charge of the repairs of all roads and bridges in his road district, except such bridges as the county commissioners may deem it advisable to repair by contract, and said supervisor shall give bond in such penalty and with such security as they may fix and approve, and with such conditions as they may prescribe in regard to the duties to be performed, the use, safe-keeping and due return of all property placed in his charge, and the proper disposal of all moneys coming into his hands for road purposes.

1888, ch. 230.

281. Each supervisor appointed under the provisions of the preceding section is required to report to the county commission-
