

1880, ch. 136.

312. If, after giving the thirty days' notice as directed in the preceding section, the said taxes shall not be paid, the collector shall levy upon either the real or personal property of the delinquent and sell the same at public sale, either on the premises or at some public place in said town, having first given twenty days' notice in writing or print, of the time and place of said sale, said notice to be posted at the court-house door and two other public places in said town; the collector shall sell so much of said property as may be necessary to pay the amount of taxes due from such delinquent, with the interest thereon, together with the cost incurred by said collector, and shall, if it be real estate, convey the same to the purchaser upon payment of the purchase money, and shall pay any amount, over and above the taxes, interest and cost for which the property may sell, to the party for whose taxes the property shall be sold.

Ibid.

313. The county commissioners of Prince George's county shall authorize and direct, from time to time, the treasurer of said county to pay to the commissioners of the town of Upper Marlborough, the amount of the tax levied or taxed upon the real property within the limits of said corporation, to be appropriated and used by the said town commissioners for the repair and improvement of the streets and roads within said corporate limits, and for such other improvements in said corporation as said commissioners shall deem proper.

Ibid.

314. A majority of the commissioners shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, and at their first meeting, which shall not be more than five days after their election, they shall select one of their number president, who shall preside at their meetings and preserve order; and in case of a vacancy in the board of commissioners, the remaining commissioners shall have power to fill said vacancy.

1880, ch. 136. 1886, ch. 141.

315. All persons who have resided, or who have been engaged in regular business within the aforesaid limits of the town of
