

66. Butchering cattle in or near market house, or putting horse or wagon into or under market-house; penalty.
67. Clerk of market, appointment and oath of.
68. Rents of stalls and shambles; accounts by clerk of market.
69. Rents and profits, how applied, and to whom paid.
70. Duty of clerk.
71. Clerk to examine and try weight of butter, and if short weight, to seize and sell at public sale.
72. Clerk to try weights, scales and measures used at said market, and if found false, to seize, adjust and sell at public sale.
73. Fines and penalties under this sub-title, how recoverable.
74. Chimney sweep, appointment and duties of; penalty.
75. Persons obstructing chimney sweep, penalty.
76. Compensation of, by whom paid
77. Commissioners authorized to erect a new market-house, or repair the old one, and to issue bonds for payment of cost of, and to pass ordinances regulating said market-house.
78. When commissioners may arrest offenders and perform duties of bailiff.
79. Commissioners to have power to regulate building of flues, and may prevent by ordinance the protruding of stove pipes through sides of houses.
80. Annual publication of accounts by commissioners.
81. Grading, regulating, paving and repairing of gutters and sewers in town.
82. Where unlawful to ride on or drive over sidewalks, penalty.
83. Fines collected under preceding section, to whom paid, and how applied.
84. Commissioners authorized to issue bonds for water works; bonds, how to be issued; rate of interest.
85. Bonds, how payable.
86. Proceeds of bonds, how to be used.
87. Special levy for interest and principal of such bonds.
88. Bonds, disposal of; ordinances for the proper managing of water works.

Church Hill.

89. Citizens of, a body corporate; corporate name; general powers of.
90. Limits of.
91. Qualification of voters in; election and term of three commissioners.
92. Commissioners to be judges of elections; oath of, as such judges.
93. Oath of commissioners.
94. Duties of judges of elections, certificates to be recorded
95. Vacancies in commissioners, how filled.
96. Meeting of commissioners for appointment of officers.
97. Oath of clerk to commissioners.
98. Oath and bond of bailiffs.
99. Three assessors of property, appointment of.
100. Oath of assessors.
101. Duties, powers and pay of.
102. Appeal by person aggrieved by assessment; transfers; new assessment, when may be made.
103. What by-laws and ordinances commissioners authorized to pass.
104. Fines and forfeitures for breach of such by-laws and ordinances, how recoverable; no fine to exceed $5.
105. Limit to rate of taxation; dog tax.