

1876, ch. 77.

28. It shall be the duty of all constables and bailiffs of the county, to arrest all persons whom they may see or have knowledge of violating section 25, and take them before the nearest justice of the peace, to be dealt with as directed in section 27.

Ibid.

29. The several justices of the peace for Queen Anne's county are required to report on the first days of January and July in each year, to the board of county school commissioners, the amount of all fines or penalties imposed by them under the four preceding sections, and to pay over to the treasurer of said school board one-half of all money received by them arising from said fines; and if any justice of the peace shall fail to so report and pay over all money so received by him, he shall for such default be reported by the county school commissioners to the governor of the State, and shall be removed by him from office; and a justice of the peace so removed shall be ineligible for any office of profit or trust under the laws of this State, until full payment shall have been made of all money so received by him.

1886, ch. 88.

30. It shall not be lawful for any person in Queen Anne's county to shoot, kill or catch, or in any way entrap any partridges or quail in said county between the twenty-fourth day of December and the first day of November; nor any woodcock between the first day of February and the fourth day of July; nor any rabbits between the twenty-fourth day of December and the first day of November.

Ibid.

31. Any person violating any of the provisions of the preceding section, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof before any justice of the peace for said county, shall pay a fine of five dollars for each and every partridge, woodcock or rabbit shot or taken; one-half of said fine to be paid to the informer, and the remainder as hereafter directed; and on failure to pay said fine shall be lodged in the county jail for ten days.
