

1886, ch. 88.

32. It shall not be lawful for any person not a bona fide resident of said county to shoot or trap any partridges, woodcock, rabbits, or any other wild game therein, without having first obtained from the clerk of the circuit court for said county a license permitting the person named in such license to shoot or trap wild game in said county for one year from the day on which said license is issued; and the person named therein or the party procuring such license shall pay to said clerk for such license the sum of four dollars and fifty cents for his fee for issuing said license; and any non-resident convicted before any justice of the peace of said county for gunning within the limits of said county without a license so to do, shall be fined twenty dollars for the first and for every subsequent offence; on failure to pay said fine, the offender shall be confined in the county jail for ten days; provided, that owners may extend the privilege of killing said game upon their own lands to whomsoever they may see fit.

Ibid.

33. It shall not be lawful for any person to ship, or attempt to ship, for the purpose of selling elsewhere, at any season of the year, any partridge, woodcock or rabbit, shot or trapped in said county, into any other county or State without having first obtained from the clerk of the circuit court for said county a license permitting the person named therein to sell or ship the same beyond the limits of said county for one year from the day on which said license is issued; and the person named therein or party procuring such license shall pay to said clerk for such license the sum of one hundred dollars, and fifty cents for his fee for issuing such license; any person violating the provision of this section by selling or shipping game for sale shall be fined the sum of five dollars for every partridge, woodcock or rabbit sold or shipped.

Ibid.

34. The possession by any person within the county, of any rabbit or any of the birds mentioned in section 30, at any time in which the shooting or trapping of the same is prohibited by said section, or the possession by any express or transportation com-
