

pany, of any partridge, woodcock or rabbit at any time, shall be prima facie evidence of violation of sections 30 or 33, respectively.

1886, ch. 88.

35. Any person found trespassing upon any private property in this county which shall have been posted or advertised, shall be liable to be arrested by any constable of the county, and shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof before any justice of the peace of said county shall be fined the sum of five dollars, and on failure to pay said fine shall be confined in the county jail for a term of ten days.

Ibid.

36. The fines which may be collected by any justice of the peace of said county, under the provisions of sections 30 to 35, inclusive, and the money paid to said clerk of the circuit court for licenses, under the provisions of sections 32 and 33, shall be paid by the said justice of the peace and said clerk, to the county commissioners, to be by them placed to the credit of the school fund for said county.

Ibid.

37. It shall be the duty of the constables of the several election districts of the county to arrest all persons violating any of said sections, and take them before the nearest justice of the peace, to be dealt with as therein directed.

BRIDGE AT CHESTERTOWN.

P. L. L. (1860,) art. 17, sec. 26. 1888, ch. 376.

38. The county commissioners of Queen Anne's county and the county commissioners of Kent county, or a majority of them, respectively, are authorized and empowered to negotiate with the stockholders of the Chester river bridge company, or their duly constituted agent, and purchase the capital stock of said bridge company at a price not exceeding the par value thereof, and provide for the payment thereof in one, two and three annual instalments, as may be agreed on, by levies on their respective counties in the proportions said respective boards of commissioners may agree upon between themselves as properly chargeable to their
